

Handwriting practice for the character 'の' (no). It consists of four rows, each with a vertical dashed line on the left and a horizontal dashed line across the middle. The first three rows show a grey 'の' with a red vertical line indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The fourth row shows only the starting point (a black dot and a red vertical line) for independent practice.

A large illustration of a pink train track curving through a landscape. A train engine is at the top, and a train car is at the bottom. Labels include 'こまごめ' (Komagome) near the engine, 'とうぎょう' (Togyo) near the car, and a speech bubble from the engine saying 'しゅっぱつ しんこう!' (Shuppatu shinkou!). A red vertical line indicates the starting point of the track's curve.
